

International Student Affidavit of Financial Support Academic Year 2022-23

— — — — —

→ Instructions for Parent/Sponsor

Completion and submission of an Affidavit of Financial Support is a required part of the international student enrollment process into US colleges and universities. The amount of support shown must be equal to or greater than the annual cost of attendance minus any scholarship that has been offered to the student. The assumption by Hope College and the US Immigration Service is that this support will continue for the duration of your study at Hope College.

The student name and e-mail should match the name, and e-mail address, used on the submitted Common Application for admission. In the "Relationship to Student" section please indicate, Parent, Family Member, or Sponsor.

→ 2021-2022 Cost of Attendance*

Tuition & Fees	$38,370
Room & Board	$11,090
Miscellaneous Expenses	$4,000
Total	$53,460

*Room and board rates traditionally increase 3-4% annually.

Miscellaneous Expenses include estimates for: Health Insurance, Books and Travel.

→ Scholarships

All admitted international students are considered for an academic scholarship, valued from $15,000 - $25,000. These are renewable for a total of four years, as long as the student remains in good academic standing. If awarded, scholarship notification will be sent with the admission letter. The amount

→ Bank statement

The bank statement needs to be an original document, issued by the sponsor's bank. It can show accounts with balances, or it can be a letter, on letterhead, stamped and signed by a bank official, verifying that the necessary funds are on account and accessible. The statement needs to be issued within the last 6 months. The balances must show the current equivalent value in US dollars.

The completed and signed form (below), with an accompanying bank statement, should be scanned and sent as a PDF to admissions@hope.edu, with "Financial Verification – (student name)" in the Subject line of the message. As an alternative, the documents can be mailed to:
